1.	AAB MARCZYOVÁ, Klaudia – RUBISOVÁ, Ivana – KURILOVSKÝ, Rastislav Official Activities and Police Interventions in Relation to (Selected) Vulnerable Groups [print, electronic document] / author Klaudia Marczyová, author Ivana Rubisová, author Rastislav Kurilovský; reviewers Jozef Meteňko, Monika Hullová, Stanislav Šišulák. – 1st ed. – Bratislava: Academy of the Police Force in Bratislava, 2022. – 148 p. – ISBN 978-80-8054-959-6. – ISBN 978-80-8054-960-2. Sign.: F 20896, E-Book 160 [MARCZYOVÁ, Klaudia (25%) – RUBISOVÁ, Ivana (54%) – KURILOVSKÝ, Rastislav (21%)] The scientific monograph addresses a current and socially significant issue focused on the area of fundamental rights and freedoms and the activities of the Police Force. As the highest value of society and of the individual, human rights must not only be enshrined by the State in its legal order and constitution, but the State must also ensure their effective implementation and, above all, their protection. The Police Force forms part of the institutional system for the protection of human rights and freedoms, and it is precisely its tasks and official activities in specifically defined areas that constitute the subject of the authors' research, the findings of which are presented in this monograph. According to the criteria of the Scientific Council of the Academy of the Police Force in Bratislava determining the segmentation of outputs, this is a scientific work classified by the author in category A+.
2.	ABC RUBISOVÁ, Ivana Doctrinal Connotations of the Best Interests of the Child – Selected Aspects [print]: Chapter 4 / author Ivana Rubisová. In: The Best Interests of the Child as a Value Criterion in Judicial Decision-Making in Proceedings Concerning the Care of Minors [print] / reviewers Róbert Dobrovodský, Soňa Mesiarkinová. – Bratislava: C.H. Beck, 2022. – ISBN 978-80-8232-012-4. – pp. 52–67. Sign.: F 20790 [RUBISOVÁ, Ivana (100%)] In this chapter of a scientific monograph, the author addresses the complexity of assessing and determining the best interests of the child, which represent the highest value criterion in judicial decision-making in proceedings concerning the care of minors. Acknowledging the proper importance of the process of evaluating individual elements as rights constituting a prerequisite for the correct assessment and subsequent determination of the best interests of the child, the author devotes particular attention to their analysis. For the purpose of their practical materialisation, these elements are illustrated through specific cases and decisions of the European Court of Human Rights. Special attention is paid to the confrontation of competing interests in the application of Article 3 of the Convention on the Rights of the Child. In conclusion, the author formulates several reflections concerning the role of the judge entrusted with deciding in the best interests of the child. She also emphasises the importance of a (although not legally binding) doctrinal interpretative approach, accepting the scientific understanding of applicable law as presented by legal scholars, whose reflections equally extend to considerations of the influence of morality and justice acting alongside law as additional regulators of social conduct.

3.	V2	RUBISOVÁ, Ivana (Un)lawful Use of Lethal Force by Security Forces – Current Issues within the European Union / author Ivana Rubisová. In: Twenty Years of Membership of the Slovak Republic in the European Union: Contributions, Challenges, Expectations [print, electronic document]: conference proceedings / ed. Vincent Holubiczky, Ivana Rubisová; reviewers Miroslav Lisoň, Jan Tryzna. – Bratislava: Academy of the Police Force in Bratislava, 2024. – ISBN 978-80-8293-035-4. – ISBN 978-80-8293-034-7. – pp. 424–437. – Invited paper. [RUBISOVÁ, Ivana (100%)] The aim of the submitted paper is to analyse provisions legitimising the use of lethal force by security forces within the framework of applicable law in the Slovak Republic, reflecting the content of relevant human rights instruments adopted at the supranational level within the framework of the United Nations, the Council of Europe, and the European Union. The paper also reflects related case law, which provides answers when addressing the question: Which conduct or restriction is compatible with the right to life? According to the criteria of the Scientific Council of the Academy of the Police Force in Bratislava determining the segmentation of outputs, this is a scientific work classified by the author in category A.
4.	V3	MARKO, Vladislav – RUBISOVÁ, Ivana Determinants of Building Legal Certainty / author Vladislav Marko, author Ivana Rubisová; reviewers Janka Hašanová, Kristína Králiková. In: Notitiae iudiciales Academiae collegii aedilium in Bratislava: Scientific Journal of the Academy of the Police Force in Bratislava. – ISSN 2453-6954. – Vol. 10, No. 1 (2024), pp. 3–27. [MARKO, Vladislav (50%) – RUBISOVÁ, Ivana (50%)] The aim of this scientific study is to clarify the theoretical and legal foundations of the application and interpretation of law determining the possibilities of building legal certainty in judicial decision-making. When assessing the “pitfalls” of the interpretative dimension of law, it is appropriate to acknowledge the overlap of interpretative problems with the legislative sphere; therefore, the study also includes the authors’ reflections on the stage of law-making, the quality of which—reflected in the content and form of legal norms—equally conditions access to justice. The relevance of examining the quality of current law-making is also justified by the hypertrophy of legal norms. In their reflections on the quality of the law-making process, the authors rely on the Roman law principle “Pessima tempora, plurimae leges.” The authors also address the indispensable phenomenon of judicial law-making, clarifying the approaches of several legal scholars regarding its opportunities and risks, while pointing to its necessity in cases of absence of legal regulation in order to prevent denial of justice. According to the criteria of the Scientific Council of the Academy of the Police Force in Bratislava determining the segmentation of outputs, this is a scientific work classified by the author in category A+.
5.	V2	MARKO, Vladislav – RUBISOVÁ, Ivana Hereditary Incapacity – Substantive and Procedural Approaches / author Vladislav Marko, author Ivana Rubisová. In: Bratislava Legal Forum 2023: Autonomy of Subjects in the 21st Century [electronic document]. – Bratislava, 2023. – ISBN 978-80-7160-705-2. – pp. 125–137. [MARKO, Vladislav (50%) – RUBISOVÁ, Ivana (50%)] In this scientific work, the authors analyse selected institutes of inheritance law. With regard to the inseparable connection between substantive and procedural regulation of inheritance matters, the authors address this area in mutual context. Statutory obstacles to inheritance capacity (i.e. reprehensible conduct against the manifestation of the testator’s last will and the commission of an intentional criminal offence against the testator, his or her spouse, children, or parents) are examined comprehensively, while taking into account the inspirational legal opinions of both Slovak and Czech supreme judicial authorities. According to the criteria of the Scientific Council of the Academy of the Police Force in Bratislava determining the segmentation of outputs, this is a scientific article classified by the author in category A–.

We analyze compliance with the principle of proportionality from three points of view - constitutional, administrative, and criminal. In the research, we will focus on defining the limit and degree of legitimacy of the intervention by a member of the Police Force into the fundamental rights and freedoms of the person against whom the service intervention is performed. Based on a critical legal analysis of relevant legal and internal regulations, decisions of public authorities, and professional and scientific literature, we will bring qualified conclusions and guidelines usable in applied police practice, which will specify how to perform a duty so that its implementation is following the law. Furthermore, thus the basic postulates of democracy and the rule of law were fulfilled.
