

Scientific Conference With International Participation

„Pharmaceutical Crime – A Threat to Europe“

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

MAIN AIM:

Primary aim of the scientific conference with international participation is to broaden the scientific focus and spectre of study for designing solutions to various application problems connected to current and acute aspects of pharmaceutical crime. The main idea of the conference is to join national and foreign/international experts from relevant scientific fields dealing with individual aspects of pharmaceutical industry with experts on criminal law enforcement. Secondary idea is to harmonize the effort put to establishing joint and efficient procedure of law enforcement bodies – mainly in terms of search, investigation and evidence substantiation connected to proving criminal liability for this kind of illegal and socially extremely dangerous criminal activity.
