„Law as a fundamental base for a police officer's activity“

Mgr. Marián Piváček, PhD.

Deputy Head of the Public Law Department

Col. assoc. prof. JUDr. Klaudia Marczyová, PhD.

APVV Project Manager

The conference Law as a fundamental base for a police officer's activity is aimed at underlining the role of law in the performance of police activities. A particular focus is put on the legality and appropriateness of service actions as well as other activities within the respective police powers. The conference will be a platform for interpretation of law and obligations of police officers, presentation of problematic areas within the performance of service actions and emphasising a need for certain amendments in the police activities in specific areas. The conference shall create a discussion panel (theoretical and practical) for future conclusions and proposals.

Special attention will be paid to presenting the results obtained within a project APVV-17-0217 Service actions performed by a police officer and the application of a principle of appropriateness from the perspective of criminal and administrative law.

The focus of the conference:

1. Rights and duties of police officers under relevant regulations.
2. Police activity in the light of human and legal dimension.
3. Service actions, legality and appropriateness.
4. Current problems in the performance of service actions.
5. Application practice in the performance of service actions.
6. Legal aspects of service actions.
7. Police activity and human rights.
8. The legal status of a police officer as a public official vs legal protection of a police officer.
9. De lege lata and de lege ferenda of the Act No. 171/1993 Coll. on the Police Force as amended.
10. De lege lata and de lege ferenda of the Act No. 73/1998 Coll. on the State Service of the Police Corps, the Slovak Information Service, the Prison and Judicial Guards of the Slovak Republic and the Rail Police as amended.
11. Improvements in the technical equipment of the Police Force as a guarantee of safety and internal order – state of play and future visions.

12. Body cameras as a part of police officers' equipment.
13. Marketing presentation of the Police Force – positives and negatives.
14. The training system of police officers – state of play and future visions.
15. Particularities of police activities towards minorities.
