1.	AAB	ODLEROVÁ, Miriam Práva žiadateľov o medzinárodnú ochranu/Rights of Applicants for International Protection / aut. Miriam Odlerová, rev. Jozef Stieranka, rev. Vladimír Zoubek, rev. Branislav Červenka. – 1st edition. - Bratislava : Academy of the Police Force in Bratislava, 2017. pp. 147 - ISBN 978-80- 8054-739-4. Sign.: F 19325, SF 1886 [ODLEROVÁ, Miriam (100%)] In this scientific monograph, the author analyzes the most important rights of applicants for international protection, from the perspective of international law, European Union law, and national legislation of the Slovak Republic. It deals in detail with the principle of non-refoulement, which it examines in several respects and the rights arising from it. In particular, it analyzes the right to asylum, the procedural rights of applicants for international protection, and other rights, such as the right to family reunification, the rights of unaccompanied minors, or the right to freedom of movement. The scientific monograph contains essential conclusions of theoretical and empirical research to determine the level of respect for the basic human rights and freedoms of applicants for international protection in the Slovak Republic. The scientific monograph was prepared within the scientific research task "Protection of human rights in the activities of the police" carried out at the Academy of the Police Force in Bratislava under no. Height 204, where one of the partial tasks was to protect the fundamental rights and freedoms of foreigners - asylum seekers. According to the criteria of the Scientific Board of the Academy of the Police Force in Bratislava stipulating the classification of outputs, the work is a scientific monograph of an objective significance for multiple states not only in one region, which is why the author dared to classify this output in the A+ category.

	Security in the Slovak Republic is ensured by various entities, both state and non-state. The non-state entities that perform security tasks on a commercial basis are private security services. However, physical protection can also be provided to public administration bodies, making it important to address the question of which individuals can be entrusted with the performance of physical protection. The article provides a detailed analysis of the status of private security services in Slovakia and the conditions for performing physical protection. According to the criteria of the Scientific Board of the Academy of the Police Force in Bratislava stipulating the classification of outputs, the work is a scientific monograph of an objective significance for multiple states not only in one region, which is why the author dared to classify this output in the A+ category.
